

Janes Class notes written up, 21st oct 2024

Everyone presented their ideas and then the rest of the class contributed to the development of everyone's ideas.

Notes from Jane and people in the class:

X2 12 year olds in year 6, one is bossy and the other boy is short and shy, with a badly grown moustache.

90 Seconds in length? Short

Every part is a comedic moment.

Parts of scooter or different get aways

- Fan in the back projecting them, ET
- Use a shopping cart instead
- Power the scooter with the item? Maybe the scooter is dead to begin with and they go into the shop looking for a part or something to make it work.
- Jet pack attachment for the scooter
- Gym ball
- Kids toy cars with remote
- Vacuum
- Drone
- Energy drink fuels them to go, drinks and get energy
- Shopping basket
- Just married cans at the back of the scooter, or things dragging at the back

Items they could steal

- Small console that they steal, video game, things that transcend gender, not makeup for instance. Speaker, technology. Some sort of toy.
- Vape
- Cardboard cut out.
- Weapon? Butterfly knife or ninja star
- There needs to be a life beyond the object
- jetpack
- Energy drink propels them, alice in wonderland
- Only one of the items left in the store, more value
- Drone
- CARDBOARD CUT OUT, told off in office, boy girl and then cardboard cut out, using it as a fan to get away. - animated character as the cardboard cut out
- Disco ball
- Like spiderman they could climb up the wall with shoes they steal., get away
- Cardboard cut out harry styles advertising something, but she doesnt want the product, the audience thinks she does but she wants the cardboard cut out

- Goes in for a vape leave with a cardboard cut out or smth else, comes out with different thing then what they wanted initially
- STANLEY CUP
- The object should work for itself
- Bay blades

Ideas of different conflicts they could face or happen

- Violent and killing the guard
- One leaves the other behind
- Girl talks to someone hot and forgets the whole plan and gets distracted while get away boy waits outside
- Security guard has giant scooter and chases them
- Little guy has short man syndrome
- Run away when scooter dies
- Window display has things they want
- Prize maybe?
- Shows cash out of their pocket of what they have, 2 coins and random things kids would have.
- Christmas isn't close enough so they want the item now instead.
- Both of the kids are losers, the girl is cool to the boy, but not cool enough for the popular girls in school
- Circle structure of story
- Speedy get away
- Or gets arrested
- Sucked into a vacuum

Notes

What's the story between the characters???? How can you make the audience invested in their story/plan

What's at stake???

Do a lot of close ups, could show sweat on their foreheads.

Boy has no confidence and wants to impress her?

Stealing idea could be started because of a dare

Ask kids what they would steal from the store

Peril at the end

Cars

Release the hounds, simpsons

Helmet on boy, oversized and big

Plan for stealing, on the side of the store or in front of the store with chalk

Badly made ad for children telling them to buy the product, not close enough to christmas so they wanna steal it now.

plan : on hand, math book, chalk on side of road

Subvert expectations

Establish beginning with black screen

WHATS THE CATALYST???

Remember that the audience is stupid, they need to be guided

Dialogue

- No dialogue at the end?
- Saying he charged the scooter at the beginning instead
- Get kids to do the voices, ophelia, liv's sister
- At the beginning "wait for me you idiot"
- "Why did i make you do this ugh u cant do anything"

BRING TO NEXT LESSON WITH JANE ON THE 4TH NOVEMBER

- SCRIPT
- STORYBOARD
- FINISHED STUFF

FIND CHILDREN TO VOICE ACT FOR US

Draft script
